That bright and spicy magazine, the Manitoban is without doubt becoming the literary art of the day. The last number published is a specimen of work that our cities in the east might be proud of, and with new features, and its enlargement, which is promised shortly, it is a magazine that should be in every home. It is the only literary magazine published west of Lake Superior, and well deserves the patronage which it obtains. Those wishing a sample copy can have one free by writing to their Winnipeg office.

Go to Stewart's for cheap groceries.

Pure Gold Goods are guaranteed in every respect.

The body of Insp. Huott, of the N. W. M. Police, was brought in from Duck Lake, and buried in the Roman Catholic cemetery here this morning. The ceremonies at the Cathedral, conducted by Rev. Peter Blais, were very imposing. The deceased gentleman will be greatly missed both in the district and the Force, in to it of which he had made innumerable friends.

We regret to announce this week the death of Mrs. Powers, the wife of one of our oldest settlers. The deceased lady passed quietly away at her father's residence on the south side of the town. The bereaved husband and parents have the deep sympathy of their many friends.

On Friday evening last a most successful and entertaining social took place at the Methodist church. An excellent programme of singing, readings and speeches had been provided and was successfully carried out. The building was crowded till there was not even standing room to spare. Under the guidance of their earnest and popular young pastor, this church is rapidly taking a first place among the churches of the town and district.

Mr. R. LaTouche Tupper, superintendent of the Fish Hatchery at Selkirk, has offered, through the Winnipeg Industrial Exhibition Association, a prize of $20 for the best essay on "The Fisheries of The Lake Winnipeg Basin and its Tributaries," which includes all lakes and streams whose waters ultimately find their way into Lake Winnipeg. The essays are to deal with the nature of the different varieties of fish found in these waters, their localities, habits of food, time of spawning, mode of capture, whether increasing or decreasing, and suggestions as to the best mode of preservation. Mr. Tupper's object is to create more interest in the food supply of fishes, by inviting competition amongst students and others in Manitoba and the North West Territories in the study of our streams and lakes. The essays will be received by the secretary of the Industrial Exhibition, Winnipeg, up to July 17th next.

THE DEAR GIRLS.

He—"Now tell me truly, what do you think of me?" She—"I could not think of being so rude." Boston Transcript.

He (mysteriously)—"Can you keep a secret?" She (ingeniously)—"I don't know; I never tried to." Detroit Free Press.

The young editor wrote: "My feet, feet, dear one, I have not room to express, and she replied: "Issue a supplement."—Tribune.

Jack—"She is not generally considered a belle, and yet I have seen her look killing." Charlie—"Indeed! When was that?" Jack—"At a ball once, when I trod upon her train."—Kate Field's Washington.

Newly-Evergreen Young Lady—"Do you think it is right for a girl to let the man she's going to marry kiss her?" Confidential Married Friend (with a sigh)—"Well, I suppose she might as well. She'll have it all to do herself afterwards."—Kate Field's Washington.

POINTS ABOUT EUROPEANS.

BARY ALFONSO is on the new Spanish postage stamp.

The queen of Greece is an expert seamstress, and cuts and makes much of her own clothing.

The young prince of Naples is known in St. Petersburg by the name as "Schermaghele," which is the name of a fictitious Napoleon of the order of "Lord Dunsany."

JANE SCHUBELAW lived in London during the reign of eight sovereigns, from Elizabeth to Anne. Of her one hundred and twenty-seven years, eight of them were spent in an almshouse.

EX-QUEEN ISABELLA, of Spain, receives $100,000 per annum, which is very far from covering her expenses, and she is invariably head over ears in debt, so much so indeed that she has frequently been placed in the most embarrassing situations.

For Fifty Years.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by millions of mothers for their children's whooping cough, colds, croup, and all the troubles of infancy. It is the best remedy for all these troubles, and it is the only one that is safe and sure. It is the only one that is safe and sure. It is the only one that is safe and sure.

REDUCED TO A SCIENCE.

The treatment of disease is now reduced to a science. A scientific product of medical skill for the cure of all blood diseases from a common simple to the worst sore which has held popular esteem for years and increases steadily in favor is Burdock Blood Bitters. It proves its worth.

LORD KILCOURSE SPEAKS.

We desire to call attention to the Great Winter Competition of 1893, which is now being conducted by the Canadian Agricultural and Home Journal, published at Peterborough, Canada. The Agriculturalist has gained a reputation in the past for fair dealing in connection with these competitions, and the future will be no exception of the rule. Those who care to compete can do so free of charge. All they have to do is to prepare a list of English words made from the letters in the two words, "Columbian Exposition." The rules are that no letter can be used oftener than it appears in the two words above named, or as the names of persons or places be used. Foreign words are also barred. The leading prizes are 1st, $4,000; 2nd, $1,000; 3rd, $500; 4th, $250; 5th, $100; besides pianos, organs, gold watches, 5,000 elegant silver tea services, etc., making a total of over 10,000 splendid prizes. All who send in 100 correct words will receive a special prize. Take a few sheets of paper, prepare a list of words made up from the letters in the two words above quoted, and send it for six months' subscription to one of the choicest and best publications on the continent, and you will have a really first class magazine to read, and may secure $2,500 in gold into the bargain. The Agriculturalist always carries out its promises to the very letter, as the following from Lord Kilcourse, the Governor General's Secretary, will testify.

Government House, Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 16th, 1893.

Sir, It will give me great pleasure to recommend my friends to enter your competition. I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant, LORD KILCOURSE, A.D.C.

To the Editor of Canadian Agriculturalist, Peterborough, Canada.

PRISONERS LIBERATED.

Many who have been confined to their beds for years by rheumatism, lame back and kidney complaints, have been liberated from their sad prisons by the wonderful regulating and purifying action of Burdock Blood Bitters which drives out the acid poison from the blood and restores health to the afflicted.
